Readers' Discussion Questions

1. Have you seen any of the SciFi movies mentioned in the book? Which were your favorites?
2. Do you believe in alien beings? Or do you think we are alone in this universe?
3. What does it mean for us as Christians if there really is life "out there"?
4. In Once in a Blue Moon, Bryn witnesses the Marfa lights, which defies explanation. Have you experienced something bizarre that cannot be explained easily? Would you call it a miracle?
5. What was a once-in-a-blue-moon event in your life? What impact did it have on you?
6. Do you believe conspiracies exist, that things aren't necessarily what they appear to be? If so, what would happen if the truth were revealed?

7. If you don't believe in conspiracies, what explanations could you give to convince someone of the truth? Or would you even try?
8. Would you describe yourself as skeptical, gullible, or cynical? How does your faith come into play in your tendency to be whichever of those you chose?
9. Often it is a balancing act between discernment and believing beyond what we can know and see. How did the characters in Once in a Blue Moon walk that tight rope? How do you handle it in your own life?
10. Bryn experiences God turning difficulties into triumphs in her life. Have you had a similar experience?
